

Ms. SATHYA H

RCI No: A11798

Ms, Sathya H completed B.Sc. (Speech and Hearing) from All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, Mysuru in 1993, M.Sc(ASLP) from Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education and Research in 2012. She is currently working as Assistant Professor in Faculty of Audiology and Speech Language Pathology, SRIHER (DU). She has experience of assessing patients in Speech Language Pathology and Audiology for the past 17 years. She also serves as Consultant Audiologist in Sri Ramachandra Medical University Hospital. She has taught courses (Audiology Lab, Diagnostic Audiology, Audiology in practice, Auditory Physiology Neurophysiology of hearing and Auditory Disorders) for over 13 years. She has authored eight papers in National and State level conferences. She has two publications and one educational video for parents on middle ear diseases. She has guided four post graduate students and is currently guiding two post graduate students in their Master dissertation. She has been reviewer of articles in Journal of Audiology and Otology. Her area of clinical focus and research are immittance audiometry, oto-acoustic emissions and electro physiological testing

She has served as co-ordinator of clinical conference, journal clubs, educational talks and cultural programmes in Faculty of Audiology and Speech Language pathology. She has been a faculty in charge and examiner for various academic responsibilities. She has been an organizing committee member of Seminar and Workshops in the Faculty of Audiology and Speech Language pathology. She is Life member of Indian speech and Hearing Association and Laryngology and Voice Association.