

KRUPA VENKATRAMAN

Krupa V is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Speech Language Pathology, Sri Ramachandra Faculty of Audiology and Speech Language Pathology, Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education and Research (DU) in Chennai.

Krupa's educational journey is marked by excellence. She holds an M.A.S.L.P and a B.A.S.L.P from Sri Ramachandra University, Chennai, along with an M.A in Linguistics. Recently, she completed her PhD (Interdisciplinary-Linguistics) from Annamalai University. Her academic prowess has earned her numerous accolades, including the prestigious "Muthayammal Memorial Gold Medal" for achieving the highest marks in B.A.S.L.P "Best Student Clinician" award in the year 2009. She has 10 years of clinical experience as an Audiologist and Speech Language Pathologist.

Her areas of research include language disorders in children and clinical linguistics. She has worked on various research activities/ projects ranging from high-frequency hearing loss identification to narrative abilities in Tamil-speaking children. Her research on narratives in Tamil speaking children has been published in "Q1" journal Heliyon. She has also written a book chapter on "Synaesthesia in Children with Autism: Observations Related to Language Evaluation and Therapy".

She has contributed as a resource person on television programs and online parent forums, where she has shared her expertise on speech and hearing difficulties. She is a member of the Rehabilitation Council of India (RCI) and the Indian Speech and Hearing Association.