

Ms. Sharon Mizpah Prathana C – Brief Narrative CV

RCI No: A56090

Ms. Sharon Mizpah Prathana C is currently working as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Speech Language Pathology in the Faculty of Audiology & Speech Language Pathology at Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education & Research (SRIHER, Deemed University), Chennai, India. She was the second rank holder during her under-graduation in Bachelors in Audiology and Speech Language Pathology (BASLP) in 2015 from MERF - Institute of Speech and Hearing, affiliated to The TamilNadu Dr. MGR Medical University. She completed her Masters in Audiology and Speech Language Pathology (MASLP) in 2017 from Sri Ramachandra University, Chennai.

Sharon's area of clinical focus is majorly on assessing and treating individuals with Neurogenic Communication Disorders, Feeding & Swallowing Disorders (Neonates to Geriatrics) and Childhood Language Disorders. She has more than 5 years of clinical experience. She has been actively involved in conducting camps and public awareness materials for individuals with Parkinson's Disease, Voice care for Choir singers and for infants with feeding & swallowing disorders.

Sharon has participated in research projects as a co- investigator in an intramural research project on "Effect of stimulation frequency on quality of speech in individuals with Parkinson's disease who have undergone sub thalamic nucleus Deep Brain Stimulation surgery" and served as a volunteer in a experimental research by OBEY-AD India coordinated by University of Padova.

Sharon is certified in Susan Langmore foundation FEES (Fiberoptic Endoscopic Evaluation of Swallowing) and post laryngectomy rehabilitation course. She is a life member of Indian Speech and Hearing Association (ISHA) and Sri Ramachandra Speech and Hearing Alumni Association (SRSHAA).