

CSS-Sri Ramachandra to offer courses in sports science

SPORTS REPORTER
CHENNAI

The Centre for Sports Science (CSS) at Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education & Research (SRIHER) has signed an MoU with the Netaji Subhas National Institute of Sports, Patiala for developing and delivering joint academic programs in sports sciences.

These six-month certificate courses will be offered as per the UGC guidelines and will feature blended learning with online and face-to-face sessions of learning & assessments.

First leg

In the first leg, Sports Physiotherapy and Sports Nutrition courses are being launched online, with admission to them now open.

The application forms will be available at https:// nsnis.org/ and <https://www.sriramachandra.edu.in/> from August 3 to 10, with eligible candidates taking the written online exam on August 16.

The course commences on August 24.

For more details, contact: Dr. K.A. Thiagarajan, associate professor, CSS (94444157440).

Mail: drkatn@csstrucoach.in.