

Joint research on cancer biology, other diseases

Chennai: Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education and Research has tied up with the Indian Institute of Science Education and Research, Tirupati for joint research in fields such as cancer biology, neuro degenerative diseases, metabolic and genetic disorders. Addressing the gathering, K N Ganesh, IISER director said they have successfully developed peptide nucleic acid (PNA) that can enter liver cells more efficiently and cure Hepatitis C. TNN