Dr.Rajagopalan is Professor and Principal, Faculty of Management, SRIHER, since January 2019. Prior to this assignment, Rajagopalan has worked in higher educational institutions in Dubai, Singapore, Malaysia, Zimbabwe and Ethiopia, the last under the UNDP scheme, teaching Organizational Behavior, Strategic Management and other management-related subjects.Rajagopalan's research interests include organizational citizenship behavior, emotional and moods at work, and organizational development.

He has thirty years of work experience and is actively involved in student-activities in creating leaders for tomorrow's business and corporate world, by involving them in undertaking meaningful initiatives in their chosen academic fields.Rajagopalan is also a Visiting Honorary International Professor in the Jamal Institute of Management, Jamal Mohammed College (Autonomous), Tiruchirapalli, India.In addition to academics, Rajagopalan is a regular trainer for reputed institutions like L & T, Landmark Group, etc., in the fields of organizational behavior, human resource management, and business strategy, conducting management development programs and supervisory development programs, as much as in curriculum development. Rajagopalan is a professional member of the Society for Human Resources Management,USA(SHRM).