

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES

Prof. Dr. S.M. Chandramohan, Director – International Student Program has enabled our students to participate in various international conferences. Few of which are listed below.

The first international conference of upper GI Surgical society of ASEAN (USAN) was held in Ho Chi Minh City of Vietnam on 28th and 29th of June 2019. On behalf of Sri Ramachandra Institute of Higher Education and Research Fifteen medical students. The Presentations Include: Fourteen Original research papers, One Complex case series, Two Complex case reports

On day 2 of the conference, there was an interactive session between the students & faculty of SRMC & RI with students and faculty of university of Ho Chi Minh City. There was discussion about sharing of knowledge and feasibility of collaboration in research and possibility of future exchange programme. The details of the presentation and presenters are enclosed.

Students also participated in the 8th Malaysian Upper Gastro Intestinal Surgical Society held in Kuala Lumpur between 12th and 13th October 2019 Under the guidance of Pof. SM

Chandramohan . A total of 26 research papers were presented. There were three lectures by the faculty.

The paper on CEA expression on Gastric Carcinoma as a Tissue Biomarker of Clinical Significance presented by the UG medical student Vishnu JM won the first Prize in student category. The paper on thoracoscopic resection of foregut duplication cyst an institutional experience presented by Dr. Nitesh Ramesh, an Intern won the third prize in the student category.

The students are also gearing up to part take in the upcoming 15th Congress of OESO to be held during 6th – 10th November 2019.

Chandramohan

Prof. Dr. S.M Chandramohan
Director - International Student Programme